

The GW Cancer Center's Online Academy

No-cost, self-paced online career development opportunities for cancer professionals in a variety of fields

OVERVIEW

The George Washington University (GW) Cancer Center offers several trainings to improve patient care, address health disparities and establish successful cancer control, patient navigation and cancer survivorship programs.

AUDIENCE

Health care providers, cancer control or public health professionals can all benefit from these courses. Visit our website to learn more about continuing education credits offered.

HOW TO ENROLL

Visit the GW Cancer Center's Online Academy to create an account and register for courses.

COURSE OFFERINGS

Current courses include:

- Action for Policy, Systems and Environmental (PSE) Change: A Training
- Addressing the Need for LGBTQ-Affirming Cancer Care: A Focus on Sexual and Gender Minority Prostate Cancer Survivors
- Cancer Survivorship E-Learning Series for Primary Care Providers
- Communication Training for Comprehensive Cancer Control Professionals 101 and 102
- Executive Training on Navigation and Survivorship
- Oncology Patient Navigator Training: The Fundamentals
- Together, Equitable, Accessible, Meaningful (TEAM) Training