

Oncology Patient Navigator Training: The Fundamentals

Fully updated and revised!

THE GEORGE
WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, DC

This free comprehensive, competency-based training uses evidence-based information and case studies to prepare patient navigators to effectively address barriers to care for cancer patients and survivors.

Why This Course?

- + 100% FREE
- + TAKE AT YOUR OWN PACE
- + 14 CE CREDITS AVAILABLE

Lessons Include:

- Cancer Basics
- Medical Terminology
- What is Patient Navigation & What does a Navigator Do?
- Team-Based Navigation and Role Delineation
- U.S. Healthcare Systems, Payment and Financing
- Professional Development and Practice-Based Learning
- Communication with Patients and Caregivers
- Patient Advocacy
- Strengths-Based Individual and Community Assessments to Address Barriers to Care
- Ethics and Patient Rights
- Program Evaluation and Quality Improvement
- Clinical Trials
- Value of Patient Navigation

<https://bit.ly/PNTraining>

Aligns to CMS Training requirements for Medicare reimbursement

